Mayor Eric Jackson to discuss economic development for Trenton on May 21st

Trenton, NJ – May 13, 2015 – The Princeton Regional Chamber of Commerce is proud to present Mayor Eric Jackson of the City of Trenton on Thursday, May 21, 7:30 a.m. – 9:30 a.m. at the Wyndham Garden Hotel in Trenton. Mayor Jackson will lead a discussion on economic development and public safety in Trenton.

“The Princeton Regional Chamber is very pleased to host this important presentation by Mayor Jackson and his economic development team,” said John P. Thurber, Chairman of the Chamber. “Under the Mayor’s direction, a comprehensive City-Wide Market Study has just been completed. This study provides vital new insights to guide Trenton’s economic development strategy, and links public safety and quality of life improvements to that strategy.”

Thurber added, “We look forward to hearing the Mayor’s presentation and to learning how the Chamber and our partners can work together to support the revitalization of the Capital City. All of us in the region have a stake in that revitalization because the region’s prosperity depends on Trenton’s vitality.”

This event is organized by the Princeton Regional Chamber of Commerce with Presenting Sponsors: Borden Perlman Salisbury & Kelly, Engineers Labor-Employer Cooperative, The Mercadien Group, Trenton Downtown Association, Inc, Thomas Edison State College, and Wells Fargo, along with Supporting Sponsors: Stark & Stark, Mercer County Community College and Kaufman Zita Group.

Tickets for the event are $25 and can be purchased online at www.princetonchamber.org or on the day of the event.
